Love is blind; but the neighbors are not blind.—Puck.

Deafness Can't be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that we cannot cure by taking HALL'S CATARRH CURE. Send for circulars, free.

The remarkable success of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the universal praise it has received, make it worthy your confidence. It is the "ideal Spring Medicine."

"It is Invaluable."

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in my family for the past four years, and for a thorough blood purifier it has no superior. It is invaluable as a spring medicine; it invigorates the whole system and tones up the stomach, and since I became acquainted with Hood's Sarsaparilla I always take several bottles in the spring, and, on occasion, requires the rest of the year." THE METHODIST CONFERENCE

FOLLOWERS OF JOHN WESLEY

Assemble in General Conference at Omaha. Summary of Proceedings.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSION.

At-to-day's session of the Methodist Conference, Dr. Gray, of Philadelphia, offered a resolution providing that each bishop be assigned to a prescribed territory for four years, and that the Episcopacy be divided into as many districts as there are bishops.

Dr. Webb, of East Ohio, in the interest of the ministers, offered a resolution that the Conference remove the time limit from the pastors. Both resolutions were referred without debate, but were received with evident pleasure.

The lay delegates, through John Field, of Philadelphia, presented a memorial asking for equal representation in conferences.

A resolution asking that seven bishops, five ministers and five laymen be appointed to attend the General Conference of the Methodist Church South, and lay before it the action of this General Conference, which believes that the interests of the Church will be increased by the amalgamation of the Church North and South, was referred to a special committee.

The report of the Constitutional Commission was then taken up, and a protracted debate followed respecting the constitutional status of lay delegates. Discussion of the report was pending when the Conference adjourned until to-morrow.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.

Bishop Joseph W. Newman presided. Rev. Halstead of Indiana led the devotional meeting. A resolution was introduced favoring the amalgamation of the Freemasonry and Southern Education Society, and the educational society of the board of education. The resolution was referred to a special committee for consideration.

The regular business was suspended for the purpose of resuming the discussion of the constitutional revision. Dr. Buckley's motion to indefinitely postpone the constitutional question was carried by a vote of 233 ayes to 10 nays.

Following is the full text of the substitute for the report of the constitutional commission, which was adopted by the conference:

"The section on the general conference in the discipline of 1893, as adopted by the general conference of 1893, has the nature and force of a constitution. That section is adopted with such modifications as have been adopted since that time in accordance with the provisions for amendment in that section is the present constitution, and is now included in paragraphs 35 to 44 inclusive in the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church of 1893 excepting:

"First, The change of the provisions for the calling of an extra session of the general conference from an unanimous to a two-thirds vote of the annual conference; and

"Second, That which is known as the plan of lay delegation as recommended by the general conference of 1893 and passed by the general conference of 1897."

This is regarded as a sort of compromise between those who hold that the plan of lay representation is not a part of the constitution and those who hold that it is. In reality, it seems a victory for the former with the admission on their part that the principle of lay representation is in harmony with and supported by the constitution.

FRIDAY'S SESSION.

Bishop Goodsell presided to-day. Rev. Thomas Hannon, of Pennington Seminary introduced a resolution declaring that the Methodist Episcopal church should come out squarely on the great struggle between capital and labor being waged in this country. He declared in his remarks that the church had not shown sufficient sympathy for the toiling millions. His resolution was referred. A delegate from the Indiana Conference introduced a resolution to change the rules so as to admit women as lay delegates in the General Conference, and to instruct the annual conference to elect either men or women may be elected as delegates. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Lay Delegates.

The Conference adopted the report of the Committee on Revivals, giving unqualified approval, serving as pastors, authority to send out missionaries where the civil law gives such authority. Memorial services occupied the Conference from this point on. Conference finally adjourned until Monday.

SIXTY PEOPLE DROWNED.

A Terrible Disaster on the Danube by a Raft Going to Pieces.

VIENNA, May 12.—A great lumber raft carrying 100 men, women and children, who lived on board during the trip down the river, went to pieces on snags near Brody in Galicia during a high wind to-day. All on board were thrown into the river. Sixty were drowned. The rest clung to logs and boards from the raft until help reached them from the shore. About 40 of the bodies have been recovered and have been laid side by side on the river bank. Scores of men are out in boats dragging the river for the other bodies. The raft was defectively constructed and the owners will be prosecuted.

KANSAS CITY DAMAGED.

The Missouri is a Raging Torrent and People Fly for Their Lives.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 14.—The danger line has been passed, and the flood is increasing every minute. The Missouri river is now a raging torrent, and the town of Harlem is being covered. The signal office sent a warning messenger to that place at 9 o'clock to-night and told the inhabitants to get out as quickly as possible and they at once began fleeing for their lives. All the low-lying parts of Kansas City, Kan., are now under water and in many cases the people were taken from their houses in boats, while several were compelled to wade through the water up to their waists.

FLOODS ON THE INCREASE.

Rivers Out of Their Banks and Causing Immense Destruction.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 14.—The rivers are over their banks and creating havoc with farm and city property. Dozens of families have had to move out of their homes.

St. Louis, May 14.—Reports from all parts of Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa state that the streams are out of their banks and causing destruction that hundreds of thousands of dollars will not cover.

The flood at Omaha has wrecked the $25,000 county hospital building.

CLUBBED TO DEATH.

Horrible Double Murder in Iowa—A Suspected Farm Hand Disappears.

PRESBOTT, Ia., May 14.—Wednesday morning William Coons, a farmer, left his home on business. He returned this afternoon to find the horribly mangled remains of his wife and daughter, who had been beaten to death with a club. Dooley, the farm hand, has disappeared, as also has a team belonging to Coons. Lynching will result if the guilty man is found.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

The Administration building will have a mosaic floor costing $5000.

A COLLECTION of finely mounted birds and animals will be shown in the Pennsylvania buildings.

A TELEPHONE exchange having, it is now thought, about 500 instruments, will be established in the Exposition grounds.

It is the intention, if possible, to arrange for a grand international regatta for both salt and fresh water yachts during the Exposition.

THE model of the Victory, Nelson's celebrated flag-ship, will be brought to the Exposition by Manager Abud, of the Prince of Wales's Theatre, London.

INVITATIONS are being sent to distinguished guests to attend the dedication ceremonies of the Exposition next October. Some 20,000 or 25,000 invitations are being sent out.

It is announced that the Pope has directed that specimens of the beautiful mosaic pictures, made at the mosaic works in the Vatican, shall be exhibited at the Exposition, and that at least one picture shall be made expressly for the fair.

It is announced that the Virginia Exposition Board intends to reproduce at the Fair Mount Vernon, the famous home and last resting place of George Washington. If this is done a large and interesting collection of Washington relics will be exhibited in the structure.

Dr. Henry J. Reynolds and Samuel B. Foster, Chicago tourists, recently climbed to the summit of South Dome, one of the highest points of the Yosemite range, and painted in enormous letters on one of the most conspicuous cliffs the words: "Visit the World's Fair in Chicago, in 1893."

A COMPANY has been granted the privilege of carrying visitors by lake and from the Exposition grounds. It is planning to run at least fourteen steamers. Between the "Lakefront" in Chicago and the grounds, four large boats, two of them whalebacks, and all having a capacity of 500 each, will make trips every half hour.

A NEW JERSEY pottery firm is making a large number of specimens of fine work for exhibition at the Fair. One piece already completed is an elegant vase, forty inches high and fifty-two inches in circumference, valued at $1000. It is thought to be one of the most perfect and beautiful specimens of the potters' art ever produced in this country.

OVER three hundred thousand orange trees were planted in Mexico last year by planters from California.

A ROOSTER TAMES A HORSE.

How a Poor Hindu Fakir Overcame a Violent Stallion.

Hindus are very skillful in training wild animals and snakes, and an incident was related the other day by an Indian traveler of how an Indian fakir tamed in a few minutes a refractory horse that no one else could manage. The horse in question was a full-blooded stallion, belonging to one of the Rajahs who had bought him for 25,000 rupees. The animal's favorite trick was to run backward when anyone mounted him, and no amount of spurring or whipping could make him go in the direction that a good horse should go. Many famed horse trainers were hired to cure the horse of this disgraceful trick, but none succeeded. The Rajah offered £200 to any one who should break the horse of his bad habit.

An English officer who was acquainted with the Rajah told him that he knew a common fakir who was of a very inventive turn of mind, and advised him to give the fellow a trial. The fakir was sent for, and appointed a day on which he said he would positively cure the horse of all bad tricks.

The Rajah, with a number of officers and retainers, went to witness the taming. The tricky horse was handsomely caparisoned, but the fakir made his appearance in his every-day dilapidated clothes, that were dirty, as usual, for he had no others. By his side walked a ragged boy, carrying a bag with something in it. The fakir said a few words to the boy, and then leaped upon the horse's back with the agility of a monkey. The horse immediately began running backward, and everybody was wondering what the fakir could do, when suddenly the boy thrust his hand into the bag and brought out a wild, vicious-looking rooster, with spurs three inches in length. Quick as a flash the boy fastened the fowl to the horse's tail and then the fun began. The rooster put in some fine work with his spurs and cackled and screamed as loud as he could. The horse was evidently surprised. First he stopped and then tried to catch the rooster, as a kitten does its tail, by turning round and round. The fakir held on like a leech.

Finding this did not succeed the horse started on a run straight ahead, just as would a dog with a tin can attached to his caudal appendage. The stallion had been conquered. That one lesson was sufficient, and he never tried to run backward again.—New York Times.

Servants' Commissions.

Housekeepers in New York and Brooklyn find that tradesmen in the two cities have begun to adopt the Parisian custom of paying commissions to maids that do the household marketing. The thing has hardened into law in Paris, and the housekeeper who attempts to do her own marketing finds the prices even higher than those charged to the maids. The custom in New York and Brooklyn first took the form of Christmas presents from butcher, baker, and candlestick maker to their friends the maids. No special secrecy was maintained, and now the grocer's commission is a tacitly recognized matter in some households. It is not unusual for club stewards to stipulate for this privilege, and only the other day one of the largest New York clubs woke up to the fact that it had within a year lost nearly $12,000 through corrupt relations between steward and tradesman. It was found that all sorts of articles were billed at prices far above the market rate, and that goods delivered when put to the test of the scales turned out to be sadly short in weight.

FAST AND LOOSE—A Runaway Horse.—Puck.

HECHAM'S PILLS act like magic on the vital organs, restore lost complexion and bring back the keen edge of appetite.

SICKNES.

A spell of sickness is due when the system's weakened, and the blood impure. It's what you must expect.

But it's what you must prevent, too. And Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents as well as cures. It invigorates the liver and kidneys, purifies and enriches the blood, sharpens the appetite, improves digestion, and restores health and strength. For Dyspepsia, "Liver Complaint," and every form of Scrofulous, Skin, or Scalp Diseases, as Salt-rheum, Tetter, Erysipelas, or any blood-taint, it's an unequalled remedy.

It's not like the sarsaparillas, which claim to be good for the blood in March, April and May. At all seasons alike, and in all cases, the "Discovery" alone is guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar, for you pay only for the good you get. But it's the best, or it couldn't be sold so.

A REMARKABLE LETTER.

A Prominent Professional Man's Extraordinary Statement.

(N. Y. Sun.)

To the Editor: Sir—As my name and face have appeared in your paper and the public prints lately, and as many of my professional brethren are wondering at it, I feel it only just that I should make an explanation. The statement published over my name was made ten years ago, after long and mature investigation, and I have never given my mind as to the facts then stated. At that time I said, as a physician, that I believed Warner's Safe Cure was the best of all known preparations for the troubles it was advocated to cure, and I say so still. I know it is considered the proper thing for the medical profession to decry proprietary and other advertised articles; but why should they do so? As the late Dr. J. G. Holland, writing over his own name in Scribner's Monthly, said:

"It is a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day are more successful than many physicians, and most of them were first discovered or used in actual medical practice; when, however, any person knowing their virtue and forecasting their popularity secures and advertises them, in the opinion of the bigoted old virtues went out of them."

Dr. Holland was an educated physician, an unprejudiced observer, and he spoke from a broad and unusual experience. Proprietary medicines should not be derided. The evidences of their value are overwhelming. I have seen patients recover from gravel, inflammation of the bladder and Bright's disease after using Warner's Safe Cure, even when all other treatment had failed.

I make this frank and outspoken statement in the interests of humanity and because I know it to be true. I trust for the same reason, you will give it to the public. Respectfully,

R. A. GUNN.
